

BIO:

Lillee Jean Trueman is an acclaimed actress, filmmaker, writer, and director from New York City. She is best known for her award-winning celebrity talk show Lillee Jean TALKS! Live, featuring beloved Hollywood stars such as Donny Most. The show has been awarded twice for Best Podcast and Best Web-Series. Her award-winning sci-fi comedy film, The Trapper Trap - The Rise of Princess Glamourite, has won dozens of awards for her creative flair, boasting Best Actress nominations and wins, Best Costume Design, and Best Trailer. Recently, Lillee Jean won four Best Actress nominations for her performance in the rom-com The Chorus in Our Eyes. She has won numerous awards for her creative indie films and has screened abroad, including for her micro-short film, The Mission is Complete, Angelique.

Lillee Jean is a trained actress who studied at the prominent T. Schreiber Studio in New York City. Her current television work includes HBO's The Gilded Age, alongside a recurring guest-star role on The FNL Network Talkshow. Debuting in 2024, Trueman directed and produced the viral award-winning documentary film, Project Bullyish, a gritty and celebrated film. In 2025, Trueman signed on to direct the best-selling book-to-TV series Write to Kill, set to be filmed in iconic locations across London and New York with a Hollywood cast. She is known for her trademark big blue/green eyes and red hair, which define her striking appearance. Raised in New York City, her diverse heritage spans Russia, Ukraine, France, England, and Germany.