

BIO:

Lillee Jean Trueman is a multi-award-winning actress, filmmaker, writer, and director based in New York City. She is best known for her critically acclaimed celebrity talk show, Lillee Jean TALKS! Live, a two-time award winner globally, which features prominent Hollywood guests such as Happy Day's star Donny Most, and Emmy Nominee John Callas.

Trueman's expansive filmography portfolio showcases her comprehensive skill set across directing, acting, writing, and producing. Her comedy feature, The Trapper Trap: The Rise of Princess Glamourite, has secured dozens of awards internationally, with her acting further highlighted by four Best Actress nominations for her performance in the rom-com The Chorus in Our Eyes. The film achieved wins across North America, Europe, and Asia. These accomplishments set the stage for her micro-short film, The Mission is Complete Angelique, which garnered significant global awards, and has achieved notable international screenings across South Asia.

As a director, her profound work includes the critically acclaimed and viral documentary film, Project Bullyish. Her celebrated production, known for its gritty focus has notably screened in California and France, earning widespread recognition. Trueman is also confirmed to direct the highly anticipated book-to-TV series Write To Kill, which is set to film in iconic locations across London and New York City with a Hollywood cast.

Lillee Jean is a trained actress who studied at the T. Schreiber Studio in Chelsea, New York City. Her current television credits include HBO's The Gilded Age, and a guest-star role on The FNL Network Talkshow.

Raised in New York City, her diverse heritage spans Russia, Ukraine, France, England, and Germany.