

BIO:

Lillie Jean Trueman is an American actress, director, filmmaker, screenwriter, and producer. She is known for the celebrity talk show Lillie Jean TALKS! Live, earning Best Series honors at the Gothamite Monthly Film Awards (NYC) and Pageant Film Festival (India). The show features Hollywood figures such as Don Most and Emmy-nominee John Callas.

Her directorial portfolio includes the documentary Project Bullyish, which won Best Documentary Feature at KIFFE (Beverly Hills) and achieved viral reverberation in France throughout 2025. Trueman's micro-short, The Mission is Complete, Angelique, received Best Director and Best Actress accolades. Trueman's television credits include HBO's The Gilded Age Season 3 and a recurring role on The FNL Network Talkshow, for which she received a Taste Awards Honoree.

Her professional pedigree is rooted in classical training at the T. Schreiber Studio (Meisner Technique; British Dialects) and vocal study at the Liz Caplan Vocal Studio. This is further bolstered by an academic background at The Keystone School in Marketing, Fine Art, and Video Design, alongside an Honors Environmental Engineering CTE Programme, which informs her STEM-based approach to filmmaking.

Born and raised in New York City, she is Ashkenazi Jewish and Lutheran, with heritage spanning Russia, Ukraine, France, England, and Germany. Her mother, Laura Rene Marks-Trueman, is a veteran Hollywood prop runner/buyer (Mad Men, Men in Black trilogy, Public Enemies, Gotham, The Alienist). Her family roots in theater extend to her great-uncle-in-law, William Zielor (Century Theatre, Universal Artists Executive).
